

Alumni group plans new Hall of Fame

The Reporter

The North Penn Alumni Athletic Association has announced plans to create a Sports Hall of Fame for alumni of North Penn, Lansdale, Hatfield and North Wales high schools with outstanding athletic accomplishments.

Nominations will be made by NPAAA members. All graduates of the above schools already honored by the North Penn/Souderton Area Sports Hall of Fame will be given NPAAA honors as well.

The association also announced plans for a Hall of Fame Museum on North Broad Street in Hatfield, which would include athletic memorabilia dating back to the 1920s. No opening date has been announced.

Those interested in making donations can contact the NPAAA at (215) 368-9800 ext. 105 or at alumni@npenn.org.

■ The North Penn Alumni Athletic Association will hold its Spring Buffet and Beverage Scholarship Fund-raiser on June 5 at the Blue Dog Pub in Lansdale's Allen Forge Center.

Beverage service begins at 8:30 p.m. with the buffet at 9. Tickets cost $15 and can be purchased by board members or by sending a check to the NPAAA at Box 32, Harleysville, PA 19438.
